people to make long-term commitments, provide big deposits and buy furniture, let alone get comprehensive healthcare benefits," Nikhil Sikri, co-founder and CEO, Zolostays, told BusinessLine.

"As the pandemic rages on, we noticed that a lot of them did not have any healthcare plans. Those who had, only had insurance which is provided under their employer's policy. With the job market being unpredictable and cash flows becoming difficult, we did not want them to be in a situation where they lose their jobs as well as incur additional expenses for their medical insurance," Suri added.
